WORK IN THE PARK

Corporate Community Days

From tree planting to stream cleanup, trail maintenance to litter pickup, we offer opportunities for your team to roll up their sleeves and go to work on behalf Percy and Edwin Warner Parks.

Corporate Community Days are private, 3-hour scheduled programs that include water, snacks, and Warner Parks t-shirts for your team. With the help of our trained field staff, we will provide your team with all the necessary tools, training, and equipment to help protect and preserve our Warner Parks.

3-hour project for up to 10 people	$500
3-hour project for up to 20 people	$1,000
3-hour project for up to 30 people	$2,500

Friends of Warner Parks is dedicated to the preservation, stewardship, and protection of Percy and Edwin Warner Parks — an environmental oasis, historic landmark, and our sanctuary in the city.

In a close partnership with Metro Nashville Parks and Recreation, we oversee land and resource management, maintain and enhance historic features, and promote educational programs that inspire a connection to nature and appreciation of the Parks.
